THE REPUBLIC OF SERBIA

SIXTY-FIFTH SESSION

e Republic of Serbia to the United Nations 14 October 2010

Mr.

Chairman,

The large number of speakers under this agenda item vividly testifies that the issues of gender equality and the advance ment of women is high on the political agenda of the UN member states. Serbia joins all other u time for the statement, I shall try to focus on the recent developments in my country relate

United Nati
ns Millennium Develop Goals. Proceeding from the Beijing

men, gender equality

education; better health care for women and gender equality in health policy; prevention and in