

and evidence which Members may possess, and assist ing in securing such information investigate, and to establish and maintain dis servation in Hungary and elsewhere, taking tes collecting evidence and receiving information

4. Invites the Secretary-General to render the Com

Assembly at its eleventh session, and thereafter from time to time to secure and regard attention reports appropriate in order to consist in a document to the General

5. Calls upon all Member States proactively to give