

The changing role of the DHL - Bridging the information gap between developing and developed countries UN Publications in National Library of China

With a special stack and a reading room, NLC provides services of materials in various formats, including printed books and journals, documents, microforms, CD-ROMs, etc. NLC not only provide good reading environment but also reference services of UN publications.

Every year NLC receive books, documents, journals and CD-ROMs sent by Dag Hammarskjöld Library and th