African countries agree to strengthen cooperation and regional partnerships

Republic of Kenya

A key message of these events is the urgent need to build a genuine partnership with African youth; to engage young men and women in leadership roles to counter and prevent extremist violence and conflict across the continent. The discussions also highlighted numerous bottom-up, youth led good practices that are contributing to the Silencing the Guns initiative, from organising sports events, conducting civic education, to innovative art projects.

The side events also focused on links between transnational organised crime and terrorism,
