

Based on our recent research, a few words about repatriated children in Central Asia. Rehabilitation, reintegration and re-socialization of children are very specific processes. There are challenges which are threefold: 1. There should be non- stop, systematic psychological work to heal post-conflict trauma of children. 2. Re-socialization of children to adapt them to new life and to adapt to school education is a big challenge. All children returned from Syria