Remarks at Panel on "Economic Development to Strengthen Threatened Democracies"
Sixth Annual Arab Democracy Forum
Amman, Jordan (September 14)

Thank you all for coming. I am very excited to be here to talk about a subject that I think is critical to the future of the Arab world and beyond, and to have with me two leaders and practitioners from the region who are at the forefront of this effort.

This discussion stems from a project in Tunisia, generated two years ago by the UN Democracy Fund
