

Contribution of ODA to the SG's 2014 Report (Part I)
On Oceans and Law of the Sea

In addressing “the role of seafood in global food security”, the Informal Consultative Process may also wish to consider the implications for marine ecosystems of certain activities relating to the use, transport, or elimination of weapons of mass destruction. While disarmament and environmental challenges have often been addressed as separate issues, the environmental