

(Please check against delivery)

Statement by H.E. Mr. Gyan Chandra Acharya, Permanent Representative of Nepal, at the Meeting of the Commission on Population and Development on Agenda item

[The following text is almost entirely obscured by heavy black redaction bars. Only a few faint words are visible, including "SECRET" in the lower-left quadrant.]

well as social and economic wellbeing. In spite of the significant efforts undertaken by developing countries and some achievements in that regard, education and the empowerment