

Explanation of Position of the Delegation of Indonesia on the adoption of the draft resolution of the Status of Implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and of the 47th Session of the Commission on Population and Development 12 April 2014

Mr. Chairman,

1. First of all, allow me to join other Delegations in congratulating you on the adoption of the outcome document of this year's CPD session. Our appreciation also goes to the efforts and hard work you and the whole Bureau have made.
2. My Delegation, however, would like to register our deep concern over the procedural matter, for the manner the negotiation process has been conducted, with the BDC 0 Tc 1944 Qritat(sincerely hope that our deliberations next year will be better.
3. On the substance, we would like to convey as follows:
 - a. While acknowledging the importance of human rights based approach, Indonesia wishes to underscore that the Resolution should be acknowledging and taking into consideration of local contexts and particularities as well as national priorities and capacities, in addressing the the rights of people living under foreign o cupation. References to which, I believe, have been part of the outcome documents of the CPD sessions for outcome documents on the regional conferences on population and development, to which we have specifically stated our

C-