

BRINGING CAPITAL FOR DEVELOPMENT: Return Migration and Socio-economic Change in West Africa

Richmond Tiemoko
Africa Regional Sexuality Resource Centre.

www.arsrc.org

Bringing Return Migration Back On The Agenda

- 3 Rs. Return is part of migration process
- Substantial volume on Return (between 1991 and 2001 the volume of 'return' migration quadrupled)
- Beyond remittance.

INGREDIENTS FOR POSITIVE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CHANGE

- 3 forms of capital needed: Financial, Human and Social Capital
- Enabling and conducive environment: Rule of law, accountability, good governance

Migration and Development

Onward migration

- Financial hump
- Network, social capital
- (human capital)

Return Migration

- Financial (Saving & income)
- Social capital
- Human capital
- Leadership and training

Likelihood of greater benefit?

DATA: TRANRED PROJET

OF SCMO6 i 56 36 -54u3iv26B T7

Benefits of Return Migration

In Ghana and Cote d'Ivoire

Benefits at Individual level: I can confidently say that What I am now really has all its roots in the 15 years that I was in the State'(ITC Entrepreneur in Ghana)

Human Capital Human Social Capital Financial Capital

90% gain
network

Capital

Example

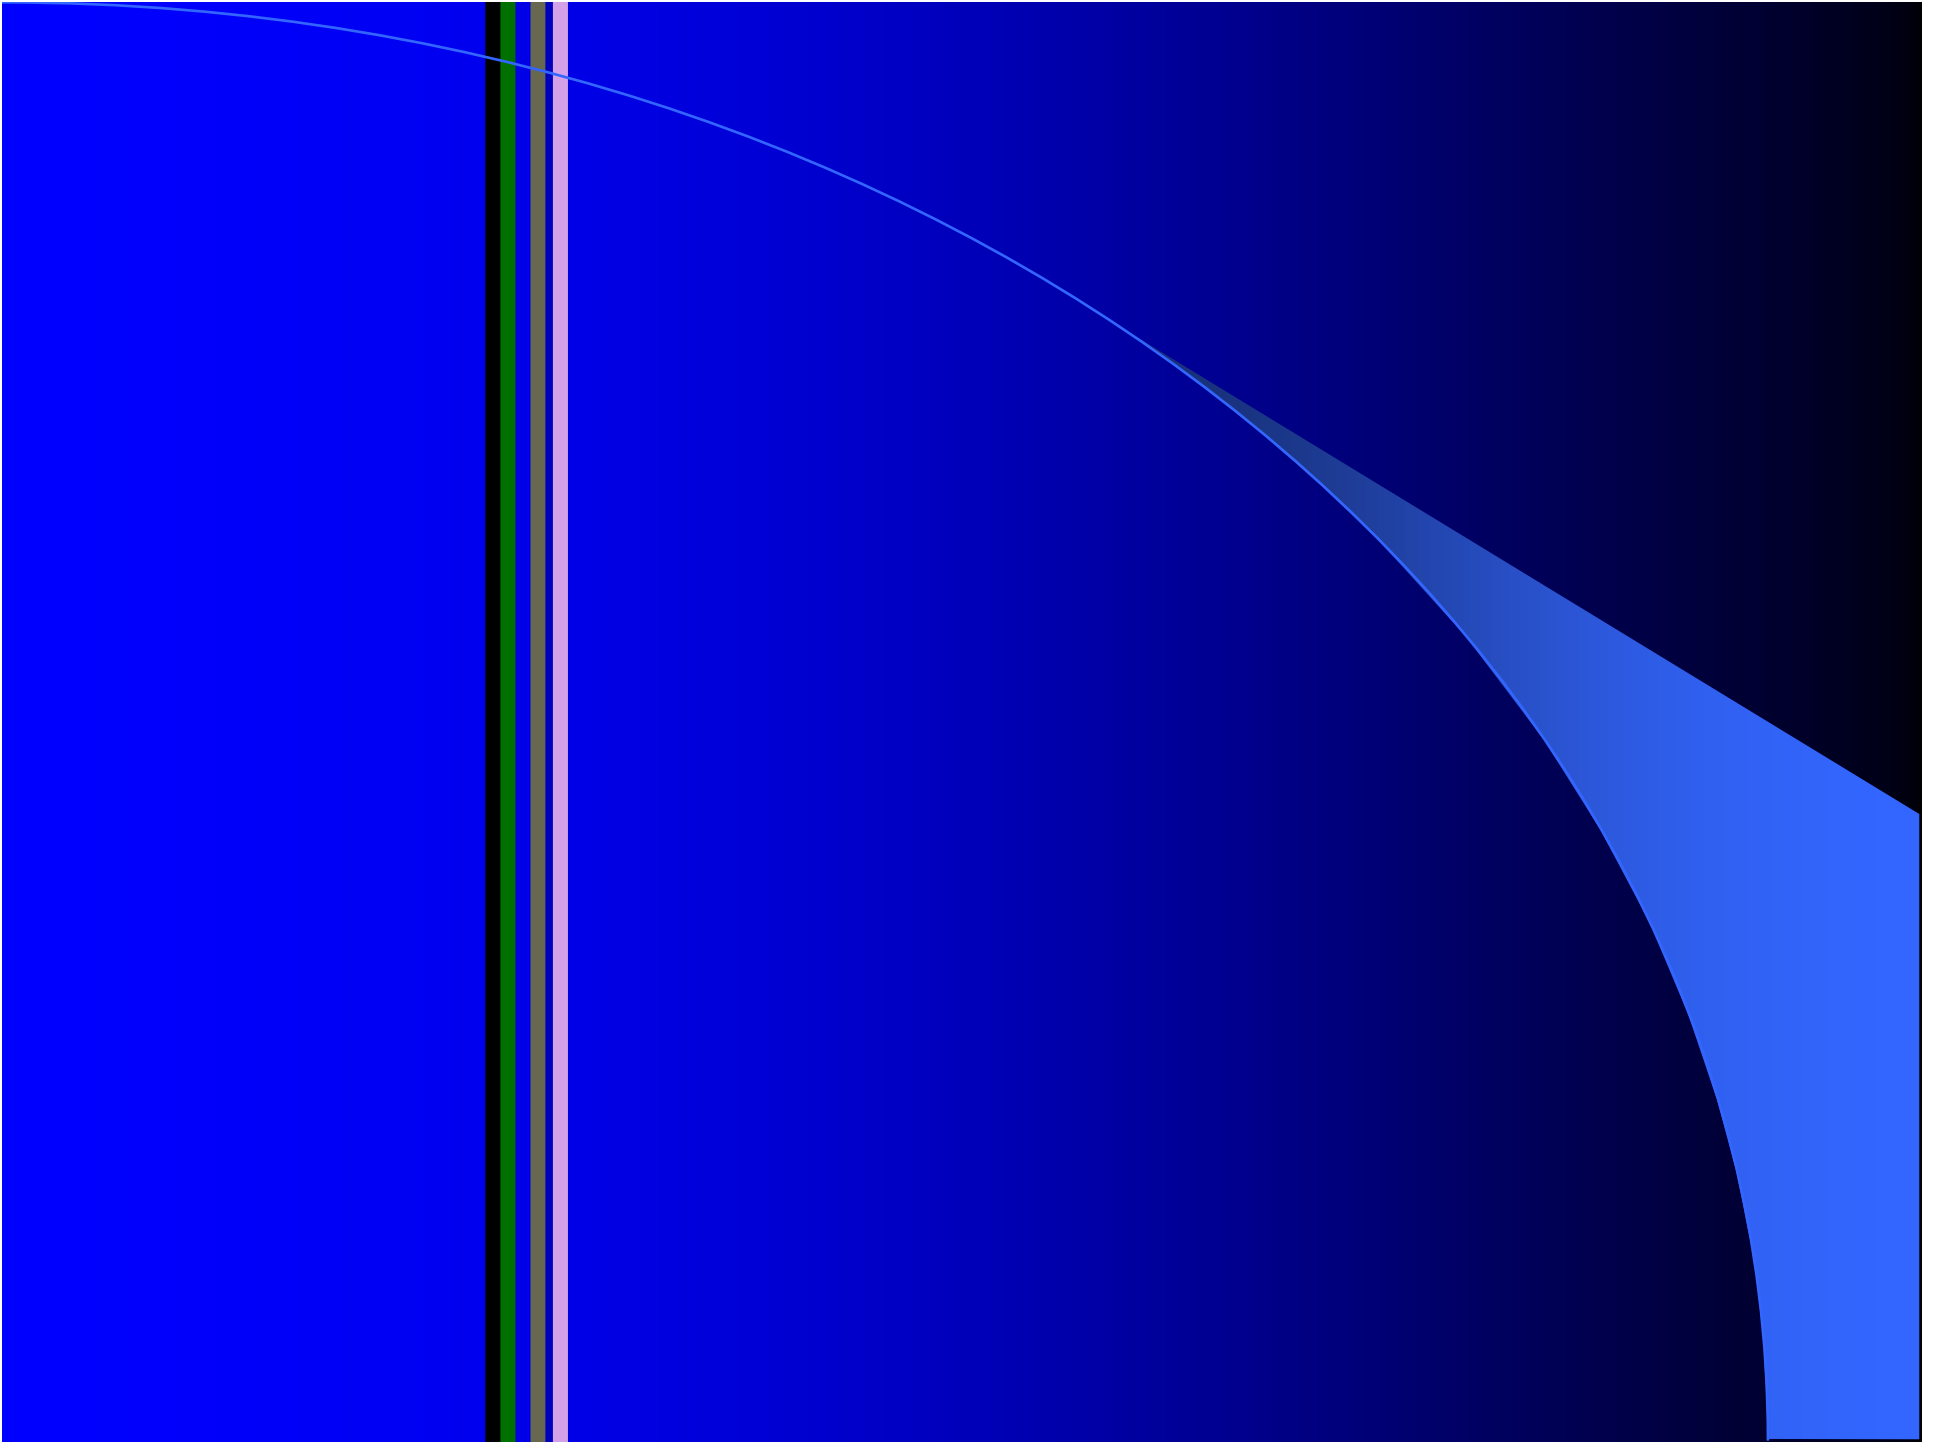

Upward job mobility
76 % work experience
very useful

Expanded network.

Higher return on investment

>70% of elite better off
than b4 migration

A third of less-killed had higher income than abroad.

Benefits at Macro level (Public Sphere)

Agent of Social Change

- 'We have contributed much to the experience of multi parties because we had seen democratic society' (Ivorian Elite)
- 'My experience had made me very human rights conscious' (Ghanaian Elite Returnee)
- 'I am very critical of things,..of the acceptance of bad workmanship, a total lack of customer care'

Economic Benefit (employment)

Occupation	GH. Less Skilled %	CIV Less Skilled %	GH Elite*	CIV Elite*
Employee	30	47	60	82
Self employed	10	9	8	8
Employer	46	23	32	10
Other	14	21

Economic Benefit (Taxation)

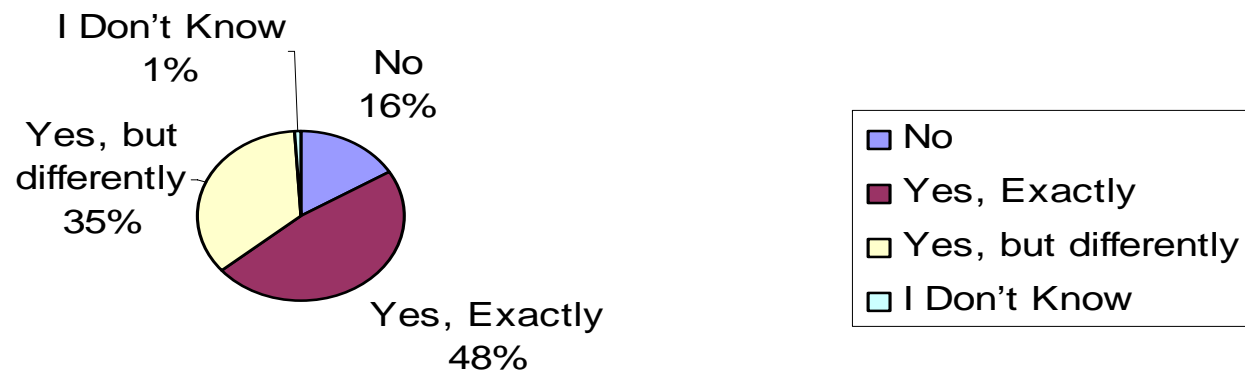

- Most of the entrepreneurs (self employed) have registered their business and therefore operate in a formal sector: 69% in CIV and 63% in Ghana.
- è Provides additional income to local and national authorities through taxation.
- Income tax for all employees.

In Short, Return Migration

- ' Does not STOP private transfer to family and relative (remittance)
- ' Provides Skills and Knowledge for local development
- ' Expands social network

Conclusion

If you could go back Would you take the decision to return?

Policy issue: Provide enabling and conducive environment; Address challenges of return.