THIRD INTERNATIONAL DECADE FOR THE ERADICATION OF COLONIALISM

Caribbean regional seminar on the implementation of the Third International

Federal-Territorial Impediments to Decolonization in Guam Michael Lujan Bevacqua, Ph.D.
Program Coordinator for the Chamorro Studies Program at the University of Guam
Chairman, Independence Task Force for Guam

Executive Summary

One of the most significant impediments to achieving decolonization in Guam is the lack of support of the Administering Power, the United States. This lack of support deformation of the arc of justice. In order to make his argument, Davis' attorneys used the history of segregation and discrimination in the United States against the rights of the Chamorro

~~people. They argued that Congress, in seeking to protect~~
