

Statement by

Representation of the Cross and Red Crescent Societies to the Inter-Governmental Conferences to Adopt the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration, 10-11 December 2015

Dear Mr. Secretary General, Dear Mr. President, Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I am pleased to be here with you today. We are gathered here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world.

We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world.

ing who, through pain and psychosocial services, and shelter information and monitoring.

fundamental principle of humanity guides us in our work. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world.

other. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world.

We have come together as a unit. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world. We are here to discuss the Arab Compact on Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. This is a historic moment for the region and for the world.

involvement, together with our partner agency ICRG, to call on States to and accommodate

are aware that for the first time, we

and, consequently, must not lead and in the way of those trying to migrants' lives.

W

crime. Despite our century-and-a-half of humanitarian to a better unaccompanied and separated children on the move. We must do optimistic

as a last resort. We know that people heavy on children, who suffer irreparable damage to their well-being.

World Bank

World Bank