

Madam President

It is a great pleasure to congratulate you and all of our colleagues on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the adoption of the Paris Agreement, if I may say, the fruitful outcome of the negotiations that have taken place in Paris.

The Paris Agreement is a landmark achievement in the history of international climate change negotiations. It is a testament to the determination of the world's leaders to take action to address the challenge of climate change. The Agreement is a clear and ambitious commitment to limit global temperature rise to well below 2°C above pre-industrial levels and to pursue efforts to limit the increase to 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels.
