

Madam Chair,

Your Excellency,

We also regret that we have no outcome this year.

However, would like to draw the attention of the Members of the Commission to the following.

We are seriously concerned with attempts to include in the draft text the concepts that do not enjoy consensus of the broad Membership. We strongly believe that naming sexual and reproductive health and reproductive rights as human rights is nothing else than an attempt to renegotiate the international conventions on human rights. Such approach dilute one of the fundamental human rights - the right to enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health. We consider this broad interpretation of the international agreements as unacceptable.

We are convinced that in case such practice continues to exist, this will not only
