Excellency,

We have the honor of addressing you in our capacity as Co-Chairs of the Intergovernmental Negotiations on Security Council Reform (IGN), and to confirm that the fourth informal meeting of the IGN will be held on 1 - 2 May 2018 in the Trusteeship Council Chamber.

Prior to the third informal meeting, on 27-28 with Member States. At this meeting, we heard several delegations comment on the difficulty they faced in providing comments on this document, due to the lack of time between its dissemination and the informal meeting. Based on these comments, the Co-Chairs will dedicate the upcoming fourth IGN meeting to further discussions on the identified Elements of Commonality and Issues for Further Consideration commonalities. In particular, we would suggest that Member States focus on Further C .j.

Similarly to the practice during the third informal IGN meeting, the meeting on the second day of the fourth IGN meeting, 2 May, will commence at 11am in order to allow for delegations to prepare their interventions.

We look forward to continuing our discussions at the next informal IGN meeting.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.
