74th Session of the General Assembly, Sixth Committee Agenda Item 79, Report of the International Law Commission (Cluster I) Statement by Mr. Ki-Jun You, Director General for International Legal Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea
29 October 2019, New York

<Check against Delivery>

Mr. Chairman,

On behalf of the Republic of Korea, I would like to begin by joining the other delegates in thanking the Chair of the International Law Commission, Mr. as well as all the members of the Commission for their hard work.

The Republic of Korea

basis for diplomatic conference. Whatever believes that further discussions procedures are needed, and that throughout these discussions. es about consultation methods and sof States should be fully heard

Mr. Chairman,

Rapporteur, Mr. Dire successful conclusion of the norms of general international

We understand that matching Commission should provide an how this could be realized. Undecided to set out the jus cogens in the annex. However, we be whether to include an illustrative

In this vein, we wor with caution, and to

, the Repu

international lation to the draft conclusion for contribute dr

st of *jus coger*a compromis dy recognized hission further reflectio upon onclusion.

Commission to app.

view that the topic,

Reparation to individW*n76TmQcG (6Tc[of)]TEQPPDeW*nBF240Tf100gcG[)]TE29GQCG[TEQPPDe

Finally, regarding the topic Prevention and repression of piracy and armed robbery at sea", the Republic of Korea notes that this has important implications for seafaring nations. The Korean government hopes that a long term program on this topic could provide clarification about how to deal with piracy and armed robbery at sea under UNCLOS, as well as practical information on its implementation by States.

In conclusion, we would like to stress that