

Democratic People's Republic of Korea

820 Second Avenue, Suite 113A, New York, NY 10017
Tel: (212) 937-2105 Fax: (212) 937-2151

For Further Information

Statement by

First Secretary

Permanent Mission of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea

to

At Sixth Committee of the 74th Session

On Agenda Item 67 Report of the Special Committee on the Situation with Nations and on the Situation in the Korean Peninsula

New York, 1 November 1999

Madam

The delegation of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea delegation of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea

the station of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea

Friends in Defence of the UN Charter

Mr. Chairman

overall UN activities are under like to make the following points for arguments for implementation

First of all, it is as it constitutes a serious violation

Paragraph 1 of article 2 of the UN Charter stipulates that the

the principle of the sovereign equality of all states

The UN member states may be different in terms of size, population and development levels, but they are all equal in terms of state sovereignty. This is the common aspiration of the humankind as well as the core element of the UN Charter.

However, even today after 70 years have passed since the signing of the the principle of sovereign equality, there are still many violations.

examples is that the US has carried out double dealing acts against the DPRK.

As with the North Korean nuclear issue, the US has been violating the UN Charter not only in the north of the Korean peninsula as well as the south of the peninsula.

gliding vehicles by several times the DPRK's nuclear tests were condemned as a threat to international peace at the Security Council.

While it is paying a lip service to the UN Charter proliferation regime, the US has searched for a permanent seat of the UN bare its true color and double-dealing attitude as the big power of nuclear proliferation.

through its decision to transfer the technology for building the submarine to Australia.

Without crack

of sovereignty activities.

nor the prospect for building a peaceful world be met

Organization and affirmative commitments contribute to making and ensuring inter-

I thank you.