

Statement on behalf of the European Union and its Member States Ms. Simona Popan, Counsellor, Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations

at the Sixth Committee on the Agenda item 86 The scope and application of the princ

United Nations

New York

2022

±CHECK AGAINST DELIVERY ±

Thank you, Mr./Madam Chair,

I have the honour to speak on behalf of the European Union and its Member States.

The Candidate Countries SerbiaAlbania and theRepublic of Moldova, as well as Georgia align themselves with this Statement.

Mr./Madam Chair

Accountability for core international trimes is part of the EU efforts to fight impunity around the world. Accountability is not only a strong deterrent, but also as a dritter successful reconciliation processes and the consolidation of peace in possitic societies.

In that regard, we view universal jurisdiction as important tool the international criminal justice system to prevent and combat impunity and promote international accountability. Although the views and practices of States concerning the definition, scope and application of universal jurisdiction vary

The European Union believes the principle of universal jurisdiction. also believe that universal jurisdiction is one of many tools that can assist in prevention guilloure commission of the most serious international crimels.

Mr./Madam Chair,

In the spirit of the LN Charter, the Europealdinion and its Member States will continue to work towards our shared goal to prevention provent provided believe that universal jurisdiction is an important tool in that regalide look forward to a fruitful exchange of best practices and valuable reflections on this agenda item

Thank you.