

General Assembly session on the 2023 Secretary-General Report "Development and the Responsibility to Protect: recognizing and addressing embedded risks and drivers of atrocity crimes".

questions and propositions and hope that some key convergences can be discerned on the way forward to optimize and maximize the development agenda in the context of R2P, in other words, how to realize the interconnection the report urges in predictable, concrete terms.