

UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL
TRIBUNAL D 'APPEL DES NATIONS UNIES

---

the UNJSPF, by 22 December 2006 at the latest. i.e. 36 hours after

06 at the latest. i.e. 36 hours after

7. By letter dated 12 January 2006, the ICJ brought the UNJSPF's request to the attention of the ICJ and invited the UNJSPF to provide the ICJ with the information requested. The ICJ Panel determined that the UNJSPF had not complied with the ICJ Panel's request.

8. In a letter dated 21 September 2006 the UNJSPF, in response to the ICJ Panel's request, stated that it had not complied with the ICJ Panel's request by 12 January 2006.

Laeijdeck had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

11. On 8 October 2008, the Chief of the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal. He had also informed him that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

12. On 30 October 2008, Laeijdeck informed his superior in his capacity as a member of the Appeals Tribunal that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal. He also informed him that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

13. On 24 November 2008, the Chief of the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal. He also informed him that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

14. On 5 February 2009, the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal. He also informed him that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

15. On 22 April 2009, the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal. He also informed him that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

On 22 April 2009, the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

On 22 April 2009, the UNJSPF Office in Geneva informed Laeijdeck that he had been granted his disability benefit as provided in the Decision of the Appeals Tribunal.

in that he did not have access to his AmSat satellite hat the FD did not [his] assist in 2006 hat [he] can for in [his] disabilities

16. By order dated 10 July 2009, Laeijerdec ~~was~~ the deci ~~of~~ the UNSPC

THE UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL

Judge No 2011-UNAT-158

Judgment

36. The applicant.

Original Author: Verónica Egle

Dated this 8th day of July 2011 in Geneva, Switzerland.

(Signed)

Judge Weiberg de Roca,
President

(Signed)

Judge García

(Signed)

Judge Fahey

Entered in the Register on 29

th day of August 2011 in

New York, United States

(Signed)

Weichen Lin Registrar