

Case No. 2015-727

Luvai (Appellant)

v.

Secretary-General of the United Nations (Respondent)

4. Article 10(9) of the Statute of the Appeals Tribunal provides that “[t]he judgements of the Appeals Tribunal shall be published, while protecting personal data, and made generally available by the Registry of the Tribunal”. As the Appeals Tribunal previously held:²

[O]ne of the purposes or goals of the new system for the administration of justice is to assure that the judgments of the Appeals Tribunal are published and made available to the Organization’s staff and the general public. Public dissemination of the appellate judgments helps to assure there is transparency in the operations of the Appeals Tribunal. It also means, sometimes fortunately and other times unfortunately, that the conduct of individuals who are identified in the published decisions, whether they are parties or not, becomes part of the public purview.

Accordingly, the Appeals Tribunal has held th
