

Zong
(Applicant)

1. On 11 February 2020, the United Nations Dispute Tribunal in New York rendered Judgment No. UNDT/2020/02 (in the case of [redacted], in which the Dispute Tribunal rejected, sine qua non) her appeal of the decision not to renew her temporary appointment with the Department for General Services and Conference, inter alia. Under article 23(4) of the Appeals Tribunal Statute, the parties had 60 days from receipt of the Judgment to file an appeal, i.e., by 11 April 2020.

2. On 11 April 2020, [redacted] filed an inoperative appeal. The Appeals Tribunal Registry instructed her to file using the e-mail address she had provided in her appeal form. The Registry was unable to reach her with the contact telephone number she had indicated on her appeal form. She stated that she no longer worked at the United Nations and that her former e-mail address had been deactivated, hence, she had been unable to receive the Registry's e-mails. The Registrar gave her an additional ten days to perfect her appeal, by use of business on 6 May 2020.

3. On 8 May 2020, [redacted] filed a request for suspension, inter alia for lack of time limits to file her appeal on the grounds that she had been unable to receive the Registry's e-mails because her former e-mail address had been deactivated, and the Counsel representing her and the Office of Staff - her persona )o&puter ! hi)h ! as not ! e e9uipped ! ith standard o**i)e so*t! are i#e >DF >ro.

8. 1rti) e ~~23143~~4 o* the 5tatute pro7ides that an appea &ust be ?*i ed ! ithin
63951 (9)- 5. 27d

6393765239 (t)- 945 (t)- 601. 2. 895p