4. On 5 September 2020, the General filed his comments and indicated that the applicant failed to demonstrate an, (ir)relevance of the 10-page limit on appeal brief. He stated that should this Tribunal be the 10-page limit (with respect to the appeal brief), the respondent requests an equivalent of the page limit for the answer brief.

0. Article 5(2 (a) of the Rules of the Appeals Tribunal limits the length of appellate briefs to 10 pages= Article 2 (a) sets out the same page limit for answers.

>. He reviewed the applicant's submissions, but was not persuaded that the present case is so compelling and exceptional as to justify, a departure from the norm. The limits set out in our Rules of Procedure serve the interests of justice and the present case is not so (special, or significant as to justify, a departure. (In) fact, the Impugned Judgment as part, decided in favour of the applicant. He filed the applicant requested a finding that the evidence (rationally) justified a referral for disciplinary action, the Dispute Tribunal rendered the (case to the * - . CT speaker, in that it should review, in consultation with the Division of Health Care Regulation and Occupational Safety, and Health (DOR), whether additional supervision, or other measures were required for the (medical) officer. Additionally, the UNDT part, granted the applicant (leave) for compensation. The UNDT Judgment is only, 10 pages long. It is possible to (fully) appeal the Impugned Judgment within the statutory, prescribed 10 pages.

" IS # SRS& OR' SRS' that the applicant's motion for an increase of page limit is ' SN!S' . He is directed to file her appeal not to exceed the 10 page limit on or before 10 September 2020.
