
UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL TRIBUNAL D'APPEL DES NATIONS UNIES

Case No. UNDT/2015/01 dated

² Nikolarakis v. Secretary-General of the United Nations, Sudg%ent No. 2016-UNAT-652 dated 00 June 2016 "UNAT Sudg%ent#.

and his speaking out against management should not later prove detrimental to his (hence – hence applying) or promotion or other lateral positions.

6. The Respondent filed his comments on 10 August 2021, arguing that Mr. Niouara+is has not demonstrated a need for (or) confidentiality that would outweigh the guiding principle of transparency in judicial proceedings and the requirement under Article 10(9) of the Appeals Tribunal Statute to publish judgments.

5. The Debarment Panel also notes that it is unclear whether Mr. Niouara+is has made a similar request regarding the underlying UNDT judgment, which has been part of

%& %S' R () ORD R D that , r. Ni+o!ara+is5%otion is D N% D.

Original and Authoritative @ersion# Bng!ish

Dated this 1th da/ o) August 2021 in ?riri-An(hieta, Cra>i!.

#Si! ned$
$udge , artha 3a!e!d, Dresident

Bntered in the 7egister on this 1th da/
o) August 2021 in Ne- Eor+, United . tates.

"Si! ned#
F ei(heng Gin, 7egistrar