

Case No. 2023-1792

3.

decisions, and (ii) to grant the interim relief of suspension of the appeals proceedings until the agreed mediation comes to an end.

10. In respect of his first request for order of production of evidence, Article 11 of the

In any event, such a request should have been made before the UNDT. Therefore, this part of the motion is denied.

17. Regarding the second request pertaining to the interim relief, Article 91 of the UN-Tribunal Statute provides: "After any time during the proceedings, the Appeals Tribunal may order an interim measure to provide temporary relief to either party to prevent irreparable harm and to maintain consistency with the judgment of the Dispute Tribunal."

13. The Appeals Tribunal has consistently held that an interim measure of relief is

