Counsel for Applicant:

George Irving

Counsel for Respondent:

Elizabeth Gall, ALS/OHRM, UN Secretariat

Introduction

1. On 25 September 2018, the Applicant, a staff member on continuing appointment with the Department of Field Support, New York, filed an application in which he contests the decision to deny his claim for compensation under Appendix D to the Staff Rules on the ground that it was time-barred and refusal to refer medical issues to the Medical Service Division or Medical Board to determine receivability. The Applicant requests the rescission of the contested decision and remand of the Crr rdecprvu "ercko " vq" vj g" Cf xkqt {" Dqctf" qp" Eqo r gpucvkqp" Ercko u" *öCDEEö+" cpf" damages for denial of due process and moral damages for infliction of stress.

2. On 26 September 2018, the case was assigned to the undersigned Judge.

3. The same day, the Registry acknowledged receipt of the application and, pursuant to art. 10 vj g" Fkr wq" Vtkdwpctu" Twgu" qh' Rtqegf wtg." instructed the Respondent to file a reply by 26 October 2018.

4. On 26 October 2018, the Respondent filed a reply in which he states that on 25 October 2018, the Secretary of ABCC informed the Applicant that he had rescinded the decision to deny the claim under Appendix D and that a new decision on the claim would be taken. The Respondent claims that the application has been rendered moot since the claim is to be considered de novo cpf "vj cv"vj g" Crr rdecprvu claim of breach of duty of care is not receivable ratione materiae in the light of the jurisprudence of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal.

5. By Order No. 226 (NY/2018) issued on 7 November 2018, the Tribunal ordered the Applicant to file a submission informing the Tribunal if the case is to be maintained and if so, he is to file a response to the receivability issue invoked by the Respondent by 30 November 2018. In case the Applicant maintains the proceedings in the present case, the Tribunal would decide the case on the papers before it, and instructed the parties to file their closing submissions, based only on the evidence before the Tribunal, by 14 December 2018.

6. In light of developments conveyed in the Respondent's reply, the Applicant hereby withdraws all of his claims in the present proceedings before the Dispute Tribunal in finality, including on the merits, and with no right of reinstatement and therefore

11. An application can be withdrawn orally and/or in writing, partially or entirely. The withdrawal request can refer either to the pending application (as a procedural act) or to the right to appeal itself.

12. If an identical application is filed by the same applicant against the same party after she or he waived her or his right to appeal the matter, the exception of res judicata can be raised by the other party or ex officio by the court itself. Res judicata requires three cumulative elements: (a) same parties; (b) same object; and (c) same legal cause, and has both negative and positive effects: it is blocking the formulation of a new identical application and guarantees that it is not possible to rule differently in the same matter.

13. Res judicata is a reflection of the principle of legal certainty and does not

Conclusion

16. In light of the foregoing, the Tribunal DECIDES:

The Applicant has withdrawn the present matter in finality. There being no matter for adjudication by the Dispute Tribunal, Case No. UNDT/NY/2018/040 is hereby closed without liberty to reinstate. The present judgment on withdrawal is without prejudice to any future proceedings, if any, before the Tribunal related to the new decision to be issued by the ABCC.
