Prima facie unlawfulness

- 36. The justification provided to the Applicant for his placement on ALWOP was "pursuant to Staff Rule 10.4 (from ST/SGB/2018/1) and Section 11.4(b) of ST/AI/2017/1"
- 37. Staffrule 10.4providesin the relevant part
 - [...]
 - (c) Administrative leave shall be with full pay except
 - (i) in cases in which there is probable cause that a staff member has engaged in sexual exploitation and sexual abouse
 - (ii) when the Secretar General decides that exceptional circumstances exist which warrant the placement of a staff member on administrative leave with partial pay or without pay.
 - (d) Placement on administrative leave shall be without prejudice to the rights of the staff member and shall not constitute a disciplinary measure.
- 38. ST/Al/2017/1 (Unsatisfactory conductinvestigation and the disciplinary process) provides in the relevant part:
 - 11.4 A staff member may be placed on administrative leave without pay by an authorized official when at least one of the following conditions is met:
 - (a) There are reasonable grounds to believe (probable cause) that the staff member engaged in sexual exploitation and sexual abuse, in which case the placement of the staff membeadministrative leave shall be without pay;
 - (b) There are exceptional circumstances that warrant the placement of the staff member on administrative leave without pay because the unsatisfactory conduct is of such gravity that it would, if established, warrangeparation or dismissal under staff rule 10.2 (a)

OrderNo.: 150 (NBI/2020)

(viii) or (ix), and there is information before the authorized official about the unsatisfactory conduct that makes it more likely than not (preponderance of the evidence) that the staff member engaged in t unsatisfactory conduct.

- 39. Staff rule 10.4(c) confirms that ALWOP which departs from the fundamentals of the employment relations an exceptional measure and not a matter of vast administrative discretion. Consequently, application of ALWOP requires, primarily, the Respondent to show that legal premises allowing it are fulfilled.
- 40. For staff rule 10.4(c)(i) to be applicable it would be necessary that aff member's actions were, at minimum, accessory to sexual abuse or sexual exploitation. On the tests of the caseas they appear on the basis of the parties' submissions, this would require that the Applicant had knowingly accepte the hat female passenger would be subject to sexual exploitation aboat the Nations vehicle or at the destination he probable cause standard is not too demanding. Admittedly, however, the requisite determinations have not been made as yet, and the Applicant has not been accused of sexual abuse or sexual exploitation in any form.
- 41. Before discussing the Administrati's implementation of the staff rule 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the Tribunal wishes to recall its holding in the factor of the staff rule 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(ii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliance on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in reliances on ST/Al/2017/1, the 10.4(c)(iii) "exceptional circumstances" provision in relianc
 - [...] as a general matter, staff rule 1.2.4 establishes imposing administrative as a prerogative, and not an obligation, on the part of the Secretar General. Staff rule 10.4, as noted above, explicitly precludes administrative leave with full pay in sexual abuse cases, but it does not peclude leave with partial pall LWOP under staff rule 10.4.c remains an extraordinary measure. While originally designed to be of short duration, it may now extend throughout the duration of the investigation and disclipary proceedings without inhitation. staff members' rights against the language of the controlling staff rules, are illegitimate.

42. Turning back to staff rule 10.4(c)(ii), this Tribunal notes that it clearly requires the Secreta General to make a casespecific determination warranting special leave with partial pay or without pay. Had it been intended to resort to abstract criteria, they would have been articulated on the level of staff rules, just as it has been done regarding xual expoitation and sexual abuse reference to the gravity of the disciplinary violation and a certain threshold of proof and section 11.4(b) of ST/AI/2017/1, rightly provides a limitation on the ALWQRout does not amount to "exceptional circumstance hus, on the ground of after rule 10.4(c)(ii), a requisite gravity and threshold of proof may reas general conditions, in addition to which, however, individual circumstances of the case must speak in favour of ALWOP over leave with full pay or partipay Consideration however, must always be given to the purpose of leave 10 In other words, under after rule 10.4(c)(ii) the Respondent is required to show which his without pay.
