

Case No.: UNDT/NBI/2023/057
Order No.: 137 (NBI/2024)
Date: 2 October 2024

Background

1. On 18 July 2023, the Applicant, a former P-4 Political Affairs Officer with the United Nations Assistance Mission for Iraq (UNAMI), filed an Application with the Dispute Tribunal to challenge decisions of the Advisory Board on Compensation and Claims (ABCC).
2. On 2 September 2024, the Tribunal rendered judgment on this matter and dismissed it as not receivable (Judgment No. UNDT/2024/054).
3. On 11 September 2024, the Applicant filed the subject motion of the present decision seeking correction of Judgment No UNDT/2024/054.
4. The Respondent made no submissions in response to the Motion.

Considerations

5. Article 12.1 of the Statute of the Dispute Tribunal affords either party the option of applying

[f]or a revision of an executable judgment on the basis of the discovery of a decisive fact which was, at the time the judgment was rendered, unknown to the Dispute Tribunal and to the party applying for revision, always provided that such ignorance was not due to negligence.

6. Such application must be made within 30 calendar days of the discovery of the fact and within one year of the date of the judgment. (See also art. 29 of the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure.)

7. Article 12.2 of the Tribunal's Statute provides that

[c]lerical or arithmetical mistakes, or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission, may at any time be corrected by the Dispute Tribunal, either on its own motion or on the application of any of the parties". (See also art. 31 of the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure.)
