v.

SECRETARY-GENERAL
OF THE UNITED NATIONS

ORDER

ON WITHDRAWAL

Counsel for Applicant:
Self-represented

Counsel for Respondent:
Kara Nottingham, HRLU/UNOG

1. On 8 June 2015, the Applicant, the Director of the Investigations Division in the Office of Internal Oversight Services (“ID/OIOS”), filed an application contesting the failure of the United Nations Population Fund investigators to make a prompt referral of his formal complaint against the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management; a former staff member of ID/OIOS; and a legal officer in the Administrative Law Section in OHRM to the Under-Secretary-General for Management.

2. On 2 September 2015, the parties filed a joint motion requesting the Tribunal to refer the matter to the Mediation Services of the United Nations Ombudsman’s Office (“UNOMS”). The Tribunal made a formal referral of the case to the Mediation Services and suspended proceedings pending the outcome of mediation discussions.

3. On 23 October 2015, UNOMS advised the Tribunal that mediation had been successful. On 26 October 2015, the Applicant filed a notice of withdrawal.

4. There being no further matters for judicial consideration in this case,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

5. Case No. UNDT/NY/2015/036 be closed.
