

Case No. UNDT/NY/2016/063

Order No. 198 (NY/2018)

11. The a

have been abandoned, and this matter therefore stands to be dismissed for want of prosecution.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

17. In light of the foregoing, but without determination of its merits and without prejudice, for want of prosecution.

18. The Tribunal will only consider reopening the application upon receipt of a motion to reinstate from the Applicant providing the grounds for his failure to act, intentional or the result of conscious indifference, and submitting evidence that it is in the interests of justice to reinstate the proceedings.
