

Case Nos.:

UNITED NATIONS DISPUTE TRIBUNAL

Introduction

1. The present case was initially assigned to Judge Ebrahim-Carstens. After undertaking various case management steps, by Judgment No. UNDT/2018/052 on receivability dated 25 April 2018, Judge Ebrahim-Carstens held that (see para. 49),

Defining the appealable contested administrative decision s Statute as the complaint dated 18 February 2015 under ST/SGB/2008/5 and to inform him of the result, the Tribunal finds that the application is receivable.

2. In response to Judge Ebrahim-Carsten
No. UNDT/2018/052 and Order No. 147 (NY/2019) dated 19 July 2018, the Respondent informed on 6 August 2018 The Parties have not successfully

3. motion for recusal preservation of evidence and ancillary protective measures dated 9 August 2018, by Order No. 185 (NY/2019) dated 21 September 2018, Judge Ebrahim-Carstens found, inter alia, that,

Furthermore, for the Tribunal to order production and therefore also preservation of evidence, the request for seeking or without pinpointing events which such documents suppo if the requesting party fails to provide such necessary degree of specificity, s/he would be deemed to be on an

Rangel
Order No. 256 (2016) (in Case Nos. 2014-611, 2014-674 and 2015-689)). By merely referring to the email correspondence, that may pertain to the Applicant in any respects, of 11 individuals, and the possible responses from [the former Office of Human Resources Management], his Counsel has not provided such specificity that

4. Judge Ebrahim-Carstens then ordered that (emphasis omitted),

tion of evidence

By 4:00 p.m., on Wednesday, 3 October 2018, the Respondent is to file a submission, and if possible documentation, on the status of including reporting lines, terms of reference and any other relevant information.

In the interim, no further filings are to be made by either party without leave of the Tribunal.

5. On 3 October 2018, the Respondent filed a submission in response to Order No. 185 (NY/2019).

6. On 30 June 2019, Judge Ebrahim-

Case Nos. UNDT/NY/2015/063

Order No. 109 (NY/2019)