

With regards to para 14:

Public policies must provide the enabling environment, as well as the policy framework and incentives to ensure that private investment is aligned with sustainable development objectives, and complies with relevant human rights and environmental norms and standards including the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

We thank you for your consideration of these preliminary suggestions which will be followed by more detailed language in writing.