Procedure

14.   On 2 June 2014$ the Applicant requested management evaluation of the decisions$ inter alia$ to deny her legal assistance as well as access to UN <eadquarters. By memorandum dated 7 July 2014 from the C%(ef$ 8anagement

Evaluation Unit (the "MEU"), the Applicant was informed that her request was received by the MEU on 6 June 2014, and that it lacked competence to review a decision to deny her a representation, and that her challenge to a denial of a pass to access UN Headquarters was time-barred and thus not receivable.

15.   In October 2014, the Applicant filed her application with the Tribunal, contesting several decisions. The application was deemed incomplete due to missing supporting documents, and the Applicant was requested to complete her submission, which she did on 7 November 2014, stating that she wished to contest the following decisions only:

> 15)   the A/C AJD decision denying her legal assistance and/or other pertinent information which could have supported her in obtaining free legal assistance
