Case Study: Roads Maintenance Programme for Paraguay (World Bank)

World Bank

- The World Bank has been providing technical assistance to the Paraguayan government since 1980. The Bank's assistance has been focused on strengthening the government's capacity to manage and maintain the road network. This assistance has been provided through a series of projects, including the Road Maintenance Programme (RMP) and the Road Rehabilitation Programme (RRP).
- The RMP was established in 1980 and has since then been providing technical assistance to the Paraguayan government. The RMP's assistance has been focused on strengthening the government's capacity to manage and maintain the road network. This assistance has been provided through a series of projects, including the Road Rehabilitation Programme (RRP).
