The impacts of COVID-19 threaten to reverse the hard-won gains made by the LLDCs. The current crisis constrains the already tight financial and

Excellencies, distinguished participants,

To conclude, we must remember that there is a strength in unity and we must continue to act collectively and work together to garner greater international support for our efforts to achieve sustainable development and in these difficult times, to build back better. As the Chair of this Group, Kazakhstan will continue its dedicated work to achieve these goals.

Thank you for your attention.
