

3. Understanding the gendered impacts of cybersecurity and new technologies in the fight against terrorism is therefore essential in order to avoid bias, ensure human rights compliance and gender-

8.45-9.00 Integrating gender in P/CVE and sustaining peace: trends and developments in Asia and the Pacific

- ◁ Ms. Gaelle Demolis, Governance, Peace and Security Programme Specialist, UN Women
- ◁ Dr. Anticha Sangchai, Lecturer, Prince of Songkla University

9.00-9.20 Exchange with the audience

9.20-9.25 Closing remarks by Mr. Jon Christian Møller, Police and Justice Advisor, Permanent Mission of Norway

9.25-9.30 Closing remarks by Dr. Aleksandra Dier, Gender Coordinator, CTED

Moderator: Ms. Sara Negrão, Gender Adviser, UNOCT

IV. Organizers

7. The side event is organized by the United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism (UNOCT), the Counter Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED), the National Security Council of Thailand, Canada, Norway, and UNDP Thailand.

V. Registration

8. Link for registration to the event: <https://tinyurl.com/genderandcyber>