Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED)

Example 2.1 Briefing of the Security Council on Threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts

Thursday, 19 August 2021, 10.00 a.m.-1.00 p.m.

Statement of

Assistant Secretary-General Michèle Coninsx, Executive Director, CTED

Thank you, Mr. President,

I thank you for the opportunity to brief the Council on the Thirteenth report of the Secretary-

United Nations and Member States to counter the threat.

I would also like to thank Under-Secretary-General Voronkov for his overview of the report and to commend both the United Nation Office of Counter-Terrorism (UNOCT) and the Analytical and Sanctions Monitoring Team of the 1267/1989/2253

Counter

Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED)

It is also important to reflect on other examples of progress mina over the past six months.

Crimn/Sl justica responses, n/ter/SubtySl judiciSl cooperSubt/ and the development of comprehensiva and tailored prosecuubty, rehabilitSubon and rei/tegrSubtn strategies have contbnued to besignificant prioritbes for CTED and many of our UN partners.

CTED, n/ cooperSubon with the United NSubt/s Offica on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and UNOCT, has supported efforts to increase cooperSuntn in investigSubt/s and prosecuubt/s at the naubtnSl ayd loSl levels n/ Nigeria and the Lake Chad BSsin.

In March, CTED, UNOCT and UNODC jon/tly held a regit/Sl workshop that promoted gender-responsive approaches by PRR strategies in the Lake Chad Basin.

There has also bee/ welcome progress in the development of good practicas in internSubt/Sl and regio/Sl counuer-terrorism cooperSubty, including in relSubon to judiciSl cooperSubon, mutuSl legSassistance, and extriniubt/ iy terrorism cases.

CTED and our partners further supported the Maldbvas and the Philippbnas on the use of the Internet and sociSl media bn counterterrorism investigSubtys.

And CTED, together with UNODC, contbnued to tailor thebr South Asia Regit/Sl Toolkit for Judgas to the naubt/Sl contexts of the Maldivas and PSkistan.

Mr. Presdent, excellecties and distinguished colleagues, exploring alter/Subve methods of moving funds, due to the impact of paydemnerelSued measures on money-transfer networks.

Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED)

The use of social media crowdfunding campaigns f relatives in camps in the Syrian Arab Republic also remains an ongoing challenge.

To address these challenges, CTED, in cooperation with other UN entities, continues to work together with the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), FATF-style regional bodies and the Global Counterterrorism Forum.

And due to the terrorism financing risks associated with the illicit trade in natural resources, CTED, together with the UN Counter-Terrorism Centre (UNCCT),