

- Difficulty of gathering battlefield evidence in terrorism c

- Joint or coordinated police operations in different states can be undermined by differences in police powers police-judiciary relationships criminal procedures and organizational structures.
- Operational difficulties often derive from lack of effective communications