We recognize the efforts made the DM in order to strengthen cooperation

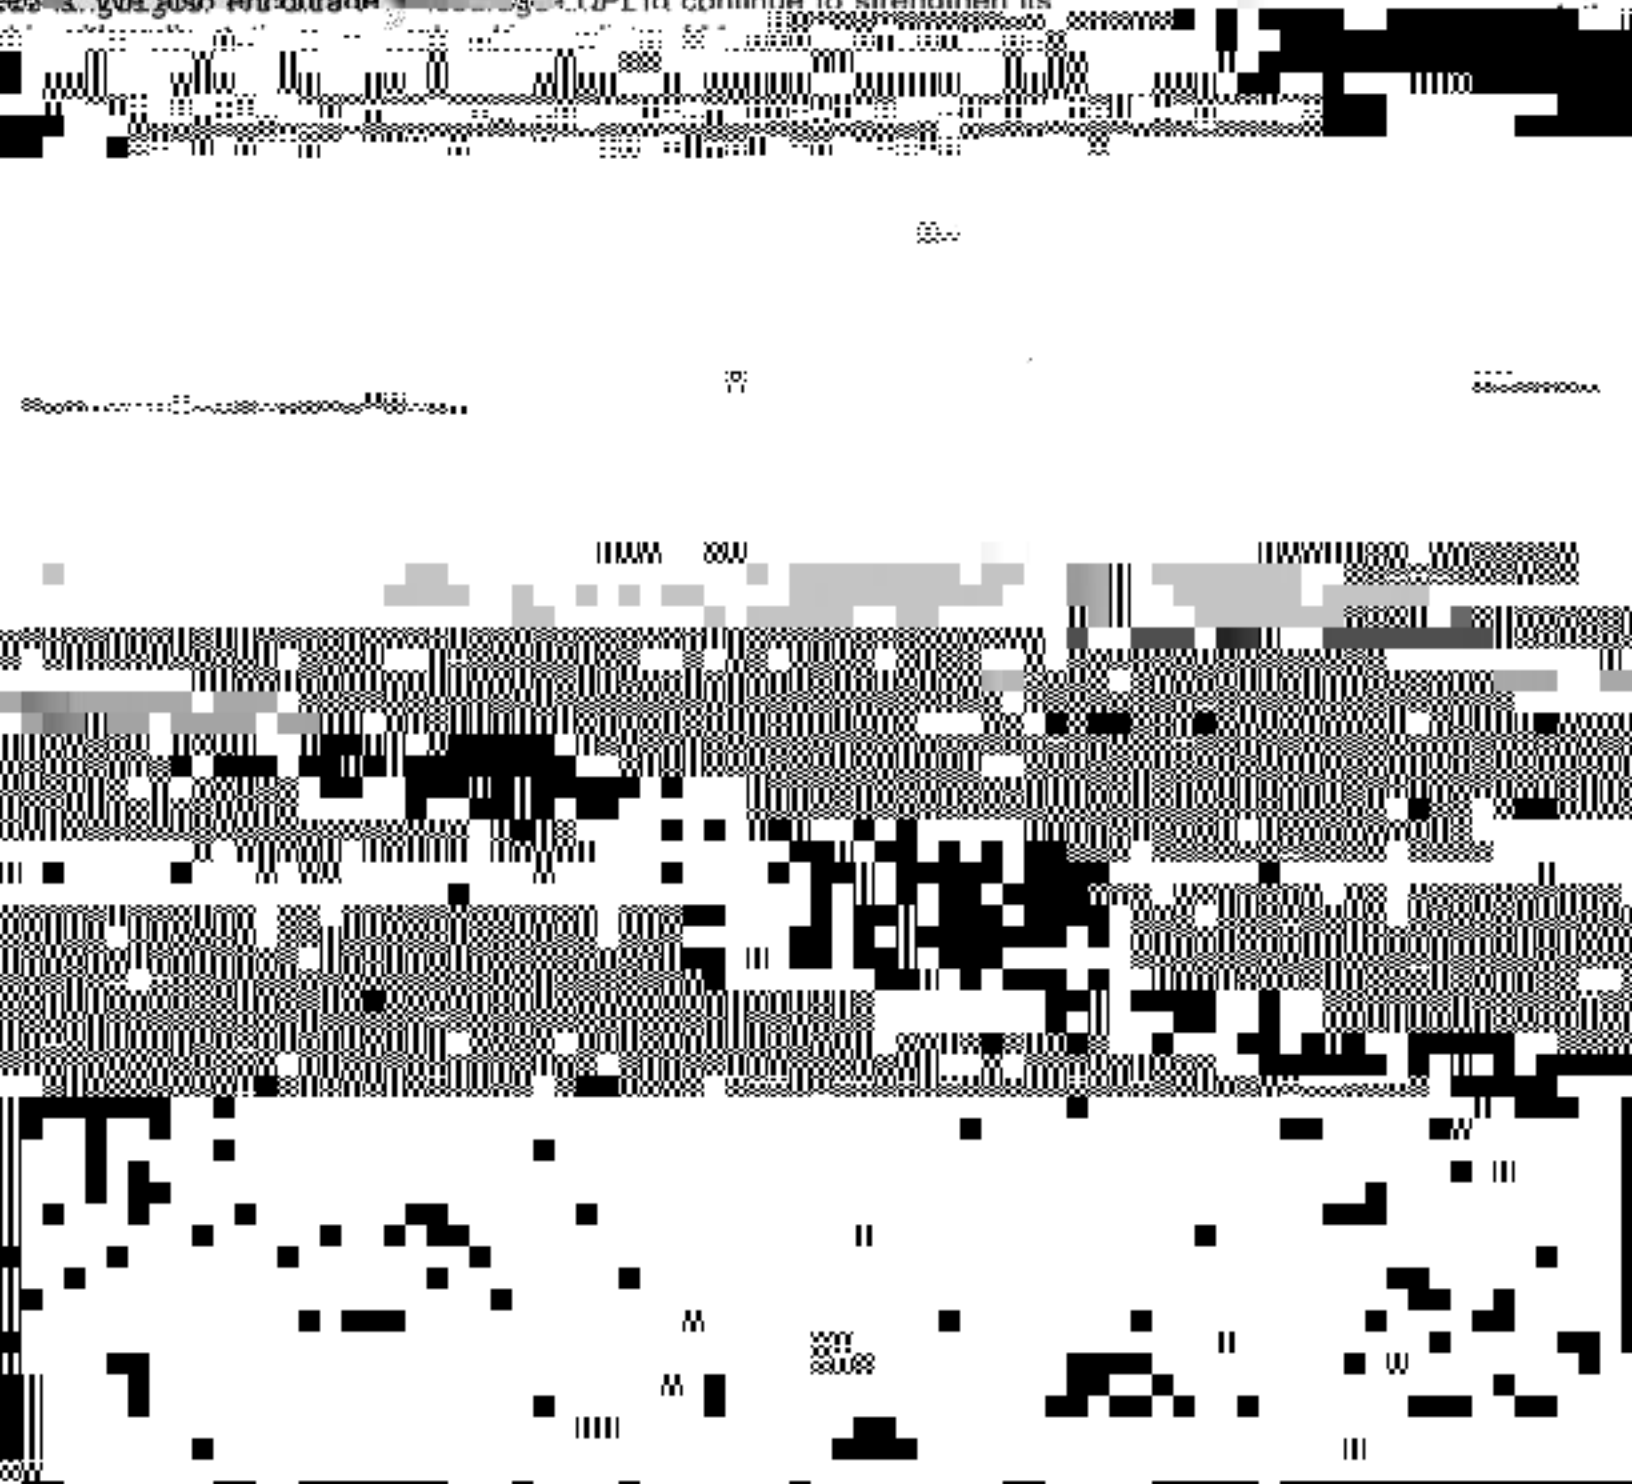

the work made in our field

We will

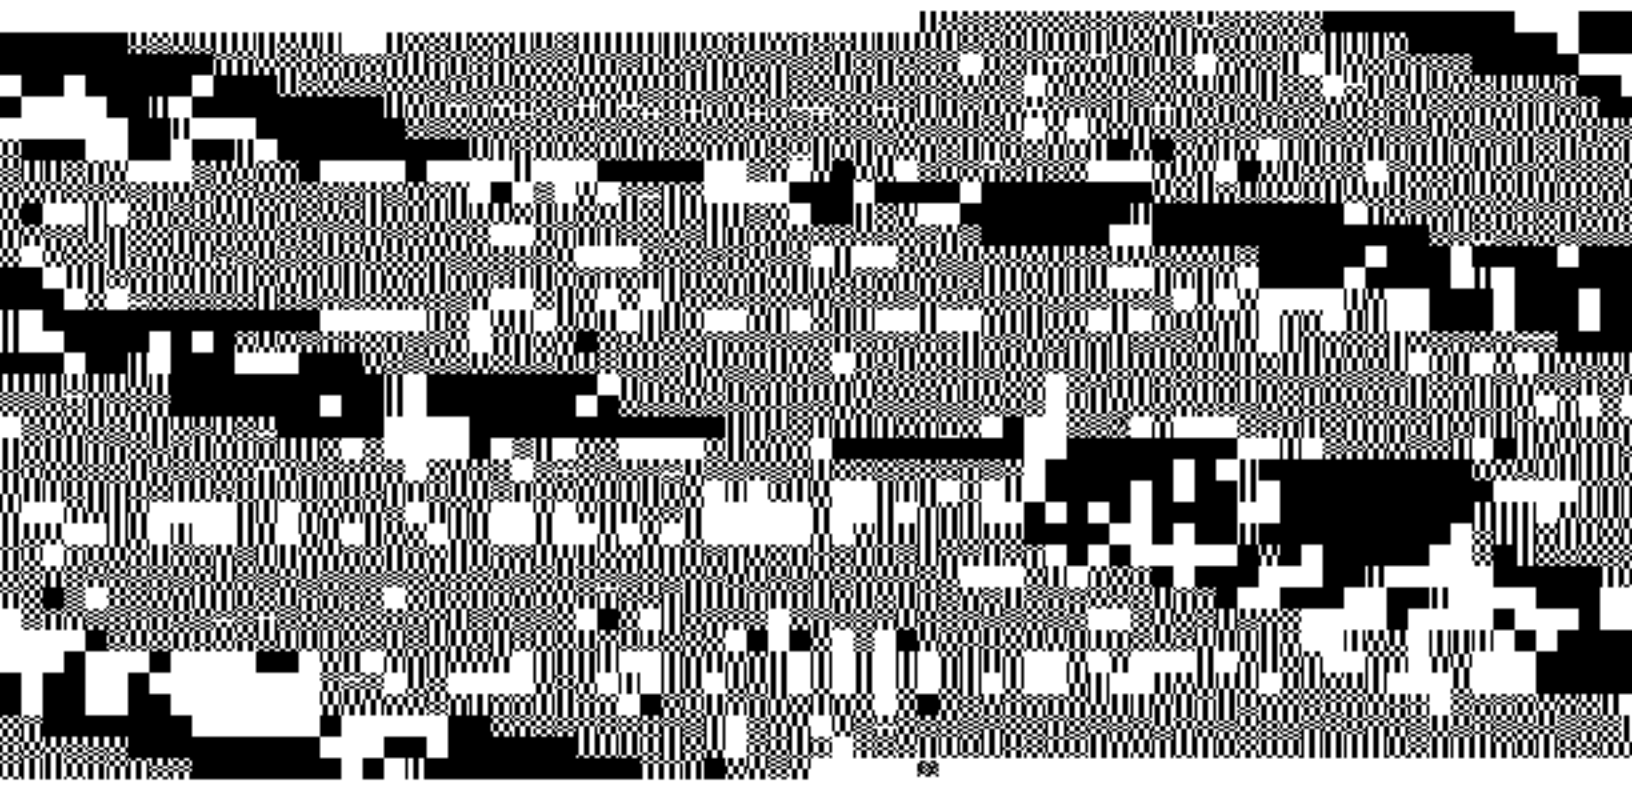

The work of the Department of Public Information contributes to improve the image of the Organization. However, additional efforts are required in order to promote the message of the United Nations not only in the official languages, but also in as many other languages as possible. The Rio Group considers a priority to ensure the parity and respect of the official languages.

It is important that mass media, such as radio, television, and newspapers, taking into account that they are still the fundamental means to obtain information, should be encouraged in as many languages as possible, including Portuguese and indigenous languages. We also encourage the DPL to continue to strengthen its efforts in this regard.

To this respect the Rio Group would like to clarify
