

MALAWI

Mr. President,

Since I am speaking for the first time during this session, please permit me to share with you my thoughts on the Millennium Development Goals. I believe that these goals are not only a moral imperative, but also a practical one. They provide a clear and concise framework for addressing the most pressing challenges of our time, such as poverty, hunger, and disease. As we work together to achieve these goals, we will not only improve the lives of the world's most vulnerable people, but we will also create a more sustainable and prosperous future for all.

What is truly sustainable. The by adopted individual and goals.

and disease, as well as to stimulate development the Millennium Development Goals, which were subsequently

2000-2015

2000-2015

...executed with the momentum as

www.millenniumgoals.org

... the Commission will continue to work closely with the African Union and the African Group to ensure that the Commission's work is aligned with the African Union's Agenda 2063 and the African Union's Gender Policy Framework.

... the Commission will continue to work closely with the African Union and the African Group to ensure that the Commission's work is aligned with the African Union's Agenda 2063 and the African Union's Gender Policy Framework.

... appointment of Ms. Michelle Bachelet as its Executive Director. The African Group hopes that the adequate and prompt resolution of the

